

Customer Service Sales Associate

JOB DESCRIPTION

The customer service sales associate supports and sells to new and existing clients. The position is also responsible for facilitating and presenting online/in person demo's, attending various conventions, and initiating/managing marketing campaigns.

WHAT WE ARE LOOKING FOR

A self-motivated, outgoing individual who is customer focused and driven. Someone who can communicate effectively in person, online via chat, over the phone and over email. We move fast and wear different hats, so we are looking for a person who can handle multiple projects and timelines while always being ready to adjust priorities and keep organized. Real-Estate, Homeowners Insurance, Property Tax and Texas County knowledge is a plus but not required.

SKILLS/REQUIREMENTS

- Business Acumen
- Client Focus
- Problem Solving/Analysis
- Communication/Presentation Proficiency
- Organizational Skills
- Technical Capacity

POSITION TYPE AND EXPECTED HOURS

This is a full-time position. Days and hours of work are Monday through Friday, 9:00 a.m. to 5 p.m. Occasional evening and weekend work may be required as job duties demand. Some travel is expected for this position; however, travel is primarily local and during the business day.

NO TOADSTOOLS

Pushing the limits of technology is a part of our average work day. That means we expect our team members to push the envelope on their own skills as well. If you aren't growing, you're planting roots into your chair as the light from your screen transforms you into a toadstool... and well, who would want that!?